Commencing with a paper round along Nelson Place to a career in leadership, management, and marketing, including financial co-operative organisations - I have a keen interest in the benefit of a strong community, invested in and underpinned by - health & wellbeing.

As a member of Westgate Health for many years, I have personally experienced the value and the accessibility of medical care that reflects this. I have been fortunate to have had that membership and am keen to reciprocate this value in kind through a board role to serve the community.
